A Bill to Provide Federal Funding for Dolly Parton's Imagination Library

BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED:

SECTION 1. Congress hereby commits to funding Dolly Parton's Imagination Library. Congress will operate a 50/50 matching model for states and territories that are willing and able to contribute to the program and will pay 100% of costs for states and territories that are not.

SECTION 2. Congress directs the Department of Education to ensure that this program becomes and remains available to all children under the age of 5 residing in a U.S. zipcode, regardless of citizenship status.

SECTION 3. Funding for this legislation shall be sourced from a commensurate reduction in the Department of Defense budget.

SECTION 4. This legislation shall be overseen by the Department of Education.

SECTION 5. This legislation shall take effect on Dolly Parton's next birthday: January 19, 2027.

SECTION 6. All laws in conflict with this legislation are hereby declared null and void.

A Resolution to Call for the Decodification of Vehicular Biking

WHEREAS The wholesale codification of vehicular biking has drastically increased the dangers associated with road cycling in the United States and its territories; and

WHEREAS This approach has further served to facilitate the wanton rejection of attempts to build safer and more efficient designated cycling infrastructure; now, therefore be it

RESOLVED by the Congress here assembled that states and territories are directed to amend those statutes governing cycling which instruct or require cyclists to operate on vehicular roadways like automobiles do, removing unsafe "far right as practicable" stipulations and calling for the widespread adoption of designated cycling infrastructure where cyclists are afforded additional right of way protections; and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED that Congress directs states and territories to prioritize the adoption of designated cycling infrastructure.

A Bill to Establish a Postal Service in Airports C

BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED THAT:

SECTION 1. Every airport in the United States that operates with a Transportation Security Administration checkpoint shall have a postal service of some kind to send banned items home.

SECTION 2. Postal service shall be defined as a company or government agency specializing in the shipment of packages. An example is Federal Express and the United Parcel Service. Banned items shall be defined as any and all items that have been prohibited by the Transportation Security Administration.

SECTION 3. The Department of Homeland Security in conjunction with the United States Postal Service shall oversee this bill.

A. The Transportation Security Administration shall be the ones responsible under the Department of Homeland Security.
B. Airports will have five years to implement the necessary remedies to comply with this bill.
C. Airports to have neglected this bill shall be fined $5 million.
D. The revenue of this bill shall go to the United States Postal Service.

SECTION 4. This legislation will take effect on June 1, 2027. All laws in conflict with this legislation are hereby declared null and void.

A Bill to Increase Domestic Oil Production

BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED:

SECTION 1. Congress hereby directs the Bureau of Land Management (BLM), the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service (USFWS), the Bureau of Ocean Energy Management (BOEM), and the U.S. Forest Service (USFS) to loosen their regulations on oil drilling within the areas they oversee, specifically the Gulf of America, the Arctic, and the Western Public Lands of New Mexico, Colorado, Wyoming, Utah, and Nevada, such that the process for corporations to attain permits to drill for oil in these federally managed areas more or less resembles that in non-protected areas.

SECTION 2. This legislation shall be overseen by the aforementioned agencies, with the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) additionally serving in a protective advisory capacity.

SECTION 3. This legislation shall take effect on January 1, 2027.

SECTION 4. All laws in conflict with this legislation are hereby declared null and void.

A Bill to Legally Dissolve Marriage Contracts Every 7 years

BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED THAT:

SECTION 1. All marriage licenses issued in the State of Colorado shall automatically expire seven years after the date of issuance unless both spouses affirmatively renew their marriage license in accordance with this legislation.

SECTION 2. (A) The term "marriage license" refers to the authorization of a legal marital status recognized by a state or jurisdiction.

(B) "Renewal" refers to the mutual, voluntary agreement by both parties to continue their marriage for an additional 7 year period.

(C) "Dissolution" refers to the termination of the legal marital status of the parties involved.

SECTION 3. There will be no penalties attached to parties legally divorcing or dissolving their marriage contract at any point in time.

SECTION 4. Prior to the seven year deadline, both spouses must affirmatively confirm their consent to remain married

SECTION 5. In the event that one or both of the parties choose to dissolve the contract (or do not actively renew), the marriage will be dissolved upon the seven year mark, and will be subject to applicable legal requirements regarding property division, child support and custody, and other legal obligations.

SECTION 6. Existing marriages, as well as marriages performed outside of the state of Colorado will be exempt from this legislation, and will not be affected.

SECTION 7. The Colorado Health Department, as well as local state and county governments will oversee the enforcement of the legislation

SECTION 8. This legislation will take effect on January 1st 2028. All laws in conflict with this legislation are hereby declared null and void.
