

The End Judge Shopping Act

BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED THAT:

SECTION 1. 28 U.S. Code § 137 is hereby amended by inserting at the end the following subsection:

A. “(c) RANDOM ASSIGNMENT OF OTHER CASES.—

a. RANDOM ASSIGNMENT.—Any civil action brought for declaratory, injunctive, or other equitable relief seeking (whether facially or as-applied) to challenge the constitutionality or lawfulness of, or to bar, restrain, vacate, set aside, or mandate the enforcement of, any provision of a Federal law on a nationwide basis, or any provision of a State law on a statewide basis in that State, shall be randomly assigned to a judge of the district court in which the civil action is filed.”

SECTION 2. “Law” shall be defined in this subsection as, with respect to an executive branch or a State or Federal agency, a rule, a regulation, a policy, and an order.

SECTION 3. The chief judge of the district court shall be responsible for the observance and implementation of the above sections.

A. Findings of consistent failure to abide by the above sections shall serve as grounds for official sanction, impeachment and conviction, and removal by the Congress of the United States.

SECTION 4. This legislation will take effect on January 1, 2025. All laws in conflict with this legislation are hereby declared null and void.

Introduced for Congressional Debate by the Collegiate School of Medicine and Bioscience.