

A Resolution to Provide Humanitarian Aid to Myanmar

1 WHEREAS, The humanitarian situation in Myanmar has significantly 2 deteriorated since the military takeover in 2021, leading to widespread 3 displacement and suffering; and 4 WHEREAS, Over 600,000 people have been forced to flee their homes
5 within a three-month period, contributing to a total of 2.6 million displaced 6 persons across the country; and 7 WHEREAS, Approximately 18.6 million people, constituting a third of 8 Myanmar’s population, are currently in need of humanitarian assistance, 9 with 25% of the population facing hunger; and 10 WHEREAS, The worsening conditions in refugee camps have led to an 11 increase in dangerous sea journeys by Rohingya refugees, seeking safety in 12 neighboring countries; now, therefore, be it
13 RESOLVED, That the Congress here assembled calls for an increase in 14 humanitarian aid and the United States Government shall provide $4
15 Billion in aid to Myanmar.
