SESSION 1: A Resolution to Support Venezuela's Freedom

1 WHEREAS, the current dictatorial Venezuelan regime has been in power since 1999
2 as a Narco-State;

3 WHEREAS, the existence of this regime goes in direct contrast to both the Monroe
4 Doctrine and the Roosevelt Corollary;

5 WHEREAS, Venezuela has committed countless Human Rights violations, leading to
6 an ongoing refugee crisis that has displaced roughly 8 million
7 Venezuelans over the past decade; with a record-breaking number of 8 roughly 270,000 Venezuelans illegally crossing the border in FY 2023;

9 WHEREAS, the Venezuelan regime has repeatedly committed election fraud,
10 including the most recent offense during the election of July 28th of this
11 year;

12 WHEREAS, previous non-aggressive attempts by the international community to 13 bring democracy and justice to the South American nation have failed;

14 RESOLVED, Congress supports the efforts of the United Nations Security Council to 15 ensure enforcement of all relevant Security Council resolutions regarding 16 Venezuela and encourages them in those efforts.

17 FURTHER RESOLVED, The President is authorized to use the Armed Forces of the United 18 States as they determine to be necessary and appropriate in order to—
19 (1) defend the national security of the United States against the 20 continuing threat posed by Venezuela; (2) enforce multi-laterally all
21 relevant United Nations Security Council resolutions regarding 22 Venezuela; (3) bring the criminals in charge of the regime to justice; and
23 (4) help replace the current Venezuelan government and the 24 establishment of an interim government with the goal to conduct free
25 elections under the supervision of the United Nations. This election will 26 coincide with the withdrawal of forces.

SESSION 1: A Bill to Reform Pardon and Commutation Powers

RESOLVED, That by two-thirds of the United States Congress here assembled, the following article is proposed as an amendment to Article 2.2 of The Constitution of the United States of America, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes a part of the Constitution when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states within seven years from the date of its submission by the United States Congress:

ARTICLE --

SECTION 1: All Presidential pardons or commutations-of-sentences as provided for in Article II, Section II of the Constitution shall first be reviewed by the Office of the Pardon Attorney in the Department of Justice.

SECTION 2: The Office of the Pardon Attorney shall consist of no fewer than five officials, appointed by the following:

- A. One by the Speaker of the House
- B. One by the House Minority Leader
- C. One by the Senate Majority Leader
- D. One by the Senate Minority Leader
- E. One nominated by the President and confirmed by the Senate as a whole.

SECTION 3: No pardon or commutation shall be granted by the President which has not been approved by four-fifths of the Office of the Pardon Attorney.

SECTION 4: Funding for the expanded Office of the Pardon Attorney shall be drawn from the general budget of the Department of Justice.

SECTION 5: This shall take effect on January 20, 2026. All laws in conflict with this legislation are hereby declared null and void.

Introduced for Congressional Debate.

SESSION 2: A Bill to Abolish Online Data Collection to Protect the Privacy of Users and Defend against Data Breaches

BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED THAT:

SECTION 1. Congress shall ban the collection of user data through cookies, embedded software, device fingerprinting, and other malicious methods to protect citizens privacy from companies and hackers targeting those companies.

SECTION 2. “User Data” will be defined as name, age, political party, gender, purchasing preferences, location, and other personal information.

SECTION 3. The Federal Communications Commission (FCC) shall oversee the implementation and enforcement of this bill.

A. The FCC shall determine what constitutes an infringement on user rights.

B. The FCC shall also determine what further constitutes “User Data” other than outlined in Section 2.

SECTION 4. This legislation will take effect on January 1, 2026.

SECTION 5. All laws in conflict with this legislation are hereby declared null and void.

Introduced for Congressional Debate.

SESSION 2: A Bill to Strengthen Regional Alliances to Combat Iranian Proxy Networks in the Levant

BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED THAT:

SECTION 1. The United States shall implement a comprehensive strategy to strengthen regional alliances in the Middle East to combat increasingly violent Iranian proxy groups.

SECTION 2. For the purposes of this bill:

A. The comprehensive strategy includes the placing of Patriot missile systems in Israel, Egypt, and Jordan, increased sharing of intelligence with both the Mossad, Mukhabarat, and the GID, and the establishment of an official military and diplomatic alliance between the United States, Israel, Egypt, and Jordan.

B. "Levant" refers to the Eastern Mediterranean region, including Syria, Jordan, Israel, the Palestinian territories, and Iraq.

C. "Iranian proxy networks" include but are not limited to: Hezbollah, Hamas, the Houthis, and other militant groups receiving support from the Iranian Revolutionary Guard and/or the Quds Force.

SECTION 3. The Department of State, in conjunction with the Department of Defense, shall oversee the implementation of this strategy.

A. The Department of State shall oversee the overall foreign policy and diplomatic issues regarding this strategy.

B. The Department of Defense shall oversee all military initiatives, the increased sharing of intelligence with the Mossad, Mukhabarat, and GID, and the establishment of an official military and diplomatic alliance between the US, Israel, Egypt, and Jordan.

SECTION 4. This legislation will take effect immediately upon passage. Alliance negotiations will begin immediately, with military hardware procurement following the next Congressional budgeting cycle.

SECTION 5. All laws in conflict with this legislation are hereby declared null and void.

Introduced for Congressional Debate.

SESSION 2: A Resolution to End the Use of Direct-to-Consumer Genetic Testing Services in Criminal Investigations

1 WHEREAS, Law enforcement often uses direct-to-consumer (DTC) genetic testing service
2 results in criminal investigations; and

3 WHEREAS, The unwarranted use of DTC genetic testing service results constitutes a
4 violation of health privacy rights for over 26 million Americans; and

5 WHEREAS, Under the Supreme Court ruling in Griswold v. Connecticut, a person has the 6 Constitutional right to privacy including bodily autonomy which includes the 7 right to their own DNA and genetics; and

8 WHEREAS, The Fourth Amendment requires law enforcement to obtain a warrant prior to 9 conducting a search; now, therefore, be it

10 RESOLVED, By the Congress here assembled require law enforcement to obtain a search
11 warrant prior to conducting DNA searches through DTC genetic testing services;
12 and, be it

13 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the warrant applies only to the DNA of a specific individual for which 14 law enforcement has successfully proven probable cause.

SESSION 3: A Bill to Provide Classes to Federally Paroled Prisoners

BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED THAT

Section 1: All federal prisons shall offer prisoners classes on life skills outside of prison for the duration of and within the parameters of their parole.

Section 2: “Life skills” are defined as the abilities for adaptive and positive behaviors that enable individuals to effectively deal with the demands and challenges of everyday life.

Section 3: The Federal Bureau of Prisons will oversee funding and enforcement of this bill.

A. Subjects taught will include but not be limited to basic computer use, financial management, parenting classes, literacy skills, social skills, career planning, job training, and anger management.

B. Any prisons found in non-compliance of this bill shall be fined the cost of running the class until compliance is met.

Section 5: All laws in conflict with this legislation are hereby null and void.

Introduced for Congressional Debate.

SESSION 3: A Resolution to Establish a Free Trade Deal with China

- 1 WHEREAS, The United States and China are the two largest economies in the world, and
2 increased trade between the two nations has the potential to foster economic
3 growth and enhance diplomatic relations; and
- 4 WHEREAS, Current trade barriers, tariffs, and restrictions impede the flow of goods and
5 services between the U.S. and China, limiting market access for businesses and 6 raising costs for consumers in both nations; and
- 7 WHEREAS, A comprehensive free trade agreement (FTA) with China could significantly
8 reduce tariffs, expand trade opportunities, and improve access to a wider range
9 of affordable products and services; and
- 10 RESOLVED, That the Congress here assembled calls for negotiations with the People's 11 Republic of China to establish a free trade agreement focused on reducing tariffs
12 and other trade barriers; and, be it
- 13 FURTHER RESOLVED, That this agreement shall include provisions to protect intellectual 14 property, ensure fair labor practices, and promote environmental sustainability.
