

A Bill to Cap Trading Expenditure of Politicians to Create a Healthy Representation in Democracy

1. Politicians for years have had the ability to increase their growth in economic sectors by abusing their positions in legislation.
2. Be it enacted by this congress that Politicians must have their trading accounts limited to $5000 USD per year to better representation in our democracy.
3. Their immediate family also cannot have trading accounts exceed $7500 USD per year.
4. Politicians shall be defined as individuals working as President, Vice President, Cabinet Members, Individuals working in the Fed, Senators, Representative, Justices, and Chief Justices.
5. The United States Department of Treasury shall oversee this legislation over everything besides the cabinet members involved in the United States Department of the Treasury.
6. The United States Department of Commerce shall oversee this legislation regarding cabinet members involved in the United States Department of the Treasury.
7. This law shall be taken into place on January 1st, 2025.

Humbly Submitted by Senator Matthew Paine of Loyola Blakefield