

A.

A Resolution Against the Banning of Books

- 1 WHEREAS, Certain books are deemed inappropriate or indecent by some groups and
2 are being removed from curriculums nationwide, thus hindering students'
3 exposure to important topics or social issues.
- 4 WHEREAS, Maintaining a variety of age appropriate books is important for the growth
5 of our nation's students.
- 6 WHEREAS, Students that are not exposed to a wide range of issues within the 7 classroom may face unexpected challenges as they near adulthood.
- 8 WHEREAS, This governing body owes it to our nation's students to protect their right
9 to an expansive and enriching education; now, therefore, be it
- 10 RESOLVED, That the Congress here assembled pledges to put a stop to the banning of 11 books within the libraries and curriculums of schools in the United States.
