A Resolution to Recognize Free-Trade in the South China Sea

- 1 WHEREAS, The South China Sea has a current ongoing dispute in territorial claims; and
- 2 WHEREAS, China's actions towards South-Asian countries that wish to trade in the
- 3 South China Sea has been increased surveillance, physical terraforming of
- 4 the reefs into islands, and usage of military gear; and
- 5 WHEREAS, The threatening of free-trade as well as the lack for America to reach out in
- 6 agreement of a "free-trade clause" is downright unconstitutional; now,
- 7 therefore, be it
- 8 RESOLVED, That the Congress here assembled formally make a statement towards
- 9 firmly suggesting the inclusion of a free-trade agreement within the South
- 10 China Sea, and that any further disagreement may be met with U.S.
- 11 involvement.

- 1 SECTION 1. States will now be required to use a nationwide dual-system education, 2 with an academic system similar to those in European countries with more 3 emphasis on a full pathway towards an individual’s goals and aspirations.
- 4 SECTION 2. Dual-system education separates middle and high school students based 5 on their own planned career, providing them with vocational training 6 alongside their general education.
- 7 SECTION 3. The Department of Education (DOE) will oversee the implementation of 8 this legislation into schools nationwide, while the Internal Revenue Service 9 (IRS) will ensure that any states and/or school districts that do not wish to 10 implement this legislation into schools pay the fee.
- 11 SECTION 4. School districts and/or states found to be in noncompliance with this 12 legislation will be met with fine of 5% of their annual education budget per 13 month until compliance.
- 14 SECTION 5. Phasing in the acts of this legislation would take effect starting on January 15 1st, 2027, and solidify and take full effect by January 1st, 2029.
- 16 SECTION 6. All laws in conflict with this legislation are hereby declared null and void.
