- Should students be allowed to use AI tools?

- Is going to college a good financial investment?

- Should you exercise every day?

- Is the current tax system fair and effective?

- Should we reduce the use of single-use plastics?

- Would it be better if everyone followed a vegetarian diet?

- Should voting be mandatory?

- Should schools teach kids a foreign language?

- Would it be better for everyone if tipping was abolished in restaurants?

- Should smartphones be banned in school?

- Should schools teach financial management and other practical skills?

- Are phones and social media affecting how kids grow up?

- Would it be a good idea to have a cashless society?

- Is social media addiction a legitimate mental disorder?

- Should the government invest more money in space exploration?

- Is math more important than reading?

- What is the most important issue for young people today?

- Is there still a stigma when people have mental health issues?

- How should countries trade off the need for safety vs. privacy?

- How has reality TV changed dating?

- Why is religion becoming less important in modern society?

- Are communities stronger in urban areas or rural areas?

- Should schools encourage students to be politically active?

- What are the best ways to reduce homelessness?

- How do government programs like social security benefit society?

- Should intelligent AIs have "human rights"?

- Who should be at fault if an AI system makes a bad decision?

- Will AI destroy jobs or lead to new forms of work for people?

- How should people handle misinformation in the age of AI?

- Will AI change the way we interact with other people in social situations?

- What is the cost of climate change?

- Should cities ban items like plastic bags and plastic straws?

- How should corporations be held responsible for climate change?

- Why is investing in renewable energy important?

- Should all endangered species be protected?

- Should farmers be forced to adopt water conservation policies?

- How can overfishing be prevented?

- Is nuclear energy a good solution or a threat?

- Is ecotourism good for local economies and ecosystems?

- Who should decide what makes a building "green"?

- Is "organic" a meaningless word today?

- Can technology solve our environmental problems?

- Should we limit the use of pesticides and chemicals in agriculture?

- Do people trust the mainstream media today? Is that a good or bad thing?

- Does social media have a positive impact on traditional media?

- What are the causes of fake news and how can we reduce it?

- How has the term "Fake News" changed the media landscape?

- Has the quality of music gotten worse over time?

- Should we keep reading literature that is offensive?

- Should people study video games as a form of art?

- Should paparazzi be allowed to invade celebrities' privacy?

- Is modern art less "artistic" than classic art?

- Should the government fund more arts and culture programs?

- When should art be censored?

- When does cultural exchange become cultural appropriation?

- Is AI-generated art really art?

- Is graffiti on public buildings art or vandalism?

- Should laws and morals always be in alignment?

- Is political lobbying moral and ethical?

- Is testing products on animals unethical?

- Should people be allowed to sell their kidneys?

- Should capital punishment exist as a form of justice?

- Should people have the right to euthanasia?

- Is selecting for or against certain traits in embryos genetic engineering?

- Should governments be allowed to use torture in the name of national security?

- How should AI and robotic systems be used in warfare?

- What moral obligations do humans have towards animals and pets?

- What types of performance-enhancing treatments are ethical in sports?

- How should self-driving cars approach situations like the "trolley problem"?

- Are parents allowed to make decisions in the best interest of their children?

- What should be taught in health education in schools?

- Does the government have the right to declare vaccines mandatory?

- Does social media have positive impacts on mental health?

- Would universal healthcare have a positive impact on our country?

- Should the government discourage people from drinking alcohol?

- Should clinical trials use placebos?

- Should people wear masks every day, even when they are not sick?

- What is the best way to encourage people to exercise more?

- Should pharmaceutical companies make drugs cheaper?

- How should organ transplants be allocated?

- Are state-sponsored assassinations acceptable for national security?

- Should prisoners have the right to vote?

- Is there too much importance placed on football?

- Is betting in sports ethical?

- Are athletes paid too much?

- Should athletes be allowed to take performance-enhancing drugs?

- Should physical education be a compulsory subject in school?

- Should female athletes be paid the same as male athletes?

- Do replays and other technologies enhance sports or take away from the experience?

- How important is racial representation in sports?

- Are animal sports like horse racing or bullfighting ethical?

- Are youth sports too commercialized?

- Should high school and college athletes be compensated?

- Should transgender athletes compete in gender-specific competitions?

- Is the celebrity culture of sports stars detrimental to the sport?

- What is the best sport? Why?

- Is social media bad for you?

- Should private companies be allowed to use facial recognition technology?

- Should we place limits on the development of AI technology?

- Who should pay for space exploration?

- Should AI deepfake technology be banned?

- Can an AI be sentient?

- Should social media companies be allowed to collect so much user data?

- Is it ethical for scientists to develop gene editing technologies?

- Has technology improved the quality of the average person's life over the last 10 years?

- Is lab-grown meat the future of food?

- Should cloning be illegal?

- Can money buy happiness?

- Is the journey or the destination more important in being happy?

- What are the best ways to pursue happiness?

- Are older people happier?

- Is happiness a better measure of a country's success than economic output?

- Can we train people to be happier using scientific research?

- Would teaching children mindfulness and mediation make them happier?

- Is volunteering one of the best ways to be happy?

- Does more choice lead to better decisions?

- Would getting rid of technology make people happier?

- What makes a job fulfilling? How can more people have fulfilling work?

- is it more important to be happy or to feel satisfied?

- Is work life balance real?

- Should companies offer unpaid internships?

- Do gig economy companies exploit their workers?

- Should companies be allowed to ask their employees to work after hours?

- Should companies monitor their employees' social media?

- Is the glass ceiling real or outdated?

- Is at-will employment a good thing for the economy?

- Are mandatory retirement ages discriminatory?

- Is remote work temporary or here to stay?

- Should companies be allowed to use IQ tests and personality tests in hiring?

- Is it ethical for CEOs to get paid 1,000x more than employees?

- Are unions a good thing for workers?

- Should companies be responsible for employees' mental health?

- Would companies be more efficient with a four day workday?

- Should animals be used in research instead of humans?

- Is it ethical to use animals in entertainment and agriculture?

- Is factory farming an unethical way to raise animals?

- Should pet ownership be regulated?

- Is it okay to hunt animals for sport? for subsistence?

- How should people manage invasive species?

- Should people be allowed to keep exotic animals as pets?

- Is it moral to breed animals in captivity? If the animals are endangered?

- Should we respect cultural practices that involve the killing of animals?

- Are animals intelligent or self-aware?

- Should indigenous populations be exempt from laws pertaining to hunting endangered species?

- How should we destigmatize mental illness?

- Should we teach kids about mental health from an early age?

- How should schools support students dealing with mental health issues?

- Should employers give employees mental health days?

- Why is there a crisis in loneliness and mental health?

- Do conservatives have better mental health than liberals?

- Could we solve homelessness and crime by focusing on mental health?

- Should the government fund more mental health research?

- Is technology a major driver of the decrease in mental health?