

Discussion Task Round 1

According to the Center for Information & Research on Civic Learning and Engagement, the lowest percentage of voters from the last Presidential election was young black males at 25%.

You are a voter advocacy group in an urban Midwest city that is looking for ways to improve voter turnout in the younger generation. Develop a plan that encourages young black males and other underrepresented groups to vote on Election Day.