

A Bill to Classify Prediction Markets as Gambling

1 BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED:

2 SECTION 1. Congress hereby officially classifies prediction markets as a form of gambling, thus making
3 them subject to any existing laws governing gambling throughout the United States and its 4 territories.

5 SECTION 2. Cornell Law School's definition of prediction market shall be utilized for this legislation: "a
6 speculative information exchange where people can trade on the outcomes of future
7 events."

8 SECTION 3. Any state or territory that fails to classify and regulate prediction markets accordingly shall
9 forfeit 50% of its federal funding provided by the Edward Byrne Memorial Justice Assistance
10 Grant (JAG) Program for each fiscal year of non-compliance.

11 SECTION 4. This legislation shall be overseen by the Department of Justice.

12 SECTION 5. This legislation shall take effect on January 1, 2027.

13 SECTION 6. All laws in conflict with this legislation are hereby declared null and void.

The Pets-in-Automobiles Welfare and Safety (PAWS) Act

1 BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED:

2 SECTION 1. All dogs and cats being transported in passenger vehicles must be safely secured with
3 veterinarian-approved safety harnesses.

4 SECTION 2. Each state and territory may individually determine which safety harnesses are approved to 5 meet the requirements of this legislation and keep our nation's pets safe, as well as what
6 penalties are appropriate for motorists who violate this legislation.

7 SECTION 3. Any state or territory found to be in violation of this legislation shall lose federal highway
8 funding until such time as compliance can be demonstrated.

9 SECTION 4. This legislation shall be jointly overseen by the Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service
10 (APHIS) and the Department of Transportation.

11 SECTION 5. This legislation shall take effect on January 1, 2027.

12 SECTION 6. All laws in conflict with this legislation are hereby declared null and void.

A Bill to Mandate Police Access to Private Security Cameras

1 BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED:

2 SECTION 1. Law enforcement agencies throughout the United States and its territories are authorized
3 to access any privately owned security camera within their jurisdiction providing the 4 camera is positioned such that it captures a view of a public space, such as a sidewalk or 5 roadway.

6 SECTION 2. When law enforcement has need of footage from such a camera, they must formally 7 request it from the camera's owner, who will then have 48 hours to comply with the 8 request or to lodge a formal appeal. The law enforcement request must clearly and 9 precisely state why the footage is needed.

10 SECTION 3. Each state and territory may determine what penalties, if any, are appropriate for refusal to 11 comply with a law enforcement request for private camera footage, as well as the details of 12 the appeal process

13 SECTION 4. This legislation shall be overseen by the Department of Justice.

14 SECTION 5. This legislation shall take effect immediately upon passage.

15 SECTION 6. All laws in conflict with this legislation are hereby declared null and void.
