A Resolution to Amend the Constitution to Adjust the Presidential Line of Succession

RESOLVED, That the following article is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states within seven years from the date of its submission by the Congress:

ARTICLE --

SECTION 1. In case of the removal of the President from office or their resignation, an elected official of a different party affiliation as that President shall become President.

SECTION 2. If there is no elected federal officer of a different party affiliation anywhere in the Executive or Legislative branch, or in the case of the death of the President, the Vice President shall become President.

SECTION 3. The remainder of the Presidential Line of Succession as laid out in the 25th Amendment shall be unchanged.

SECTION 4. The Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.
