

BISHOP NOLL NOVEMBER 16 TOURNAMENT -- BROADCASTING INFORMATION

Please Note: Bishop Noll does not have radio facilities. The speaker will be in the room with the judge. The speaker will not be facing the judge. The judge will specifically be told not to take into account in any way eye contact, appearance, or any other visual critique.

ROUND 1: Newscast

Speaker should come with the 5 minute newscast already prepared.

Speaker must have a music intro and outro. They must be at an "oldies" station. All music intro and outro must be music from the 20th century only.

Weather and sports are encouraged, but not required.

News must be from week of November 11 - November 16.

Commercial must be 30-60 seconds, and should be for White Castle.

TIME: 5 minutes total

ROUND 2: Newscast

Speaker should come with the 5 minute newscast already prepared.

Speaker must have a music intro and outro. They must be at an "oldies" station. All music intro and outro must be music from the 20th century only.

Weather and sports are encouraged, but not required.

News must be from week of November 11 - November 16.

Commercial must be 30-60 seconds, and should be for White Castle.

TIME: 5 minutes total

ROUND 3: The Editorial

The invite erroneously listed this round as “on the spot”. Apologies. Contestant should arrive to the tournament with a prepared editorial of 2 minutes. The editorial MUST be about the impeachment hearings, or related to the hearings in some way. -- 2 minutes

ROUND 4: The Cold Read

As has become the Bishop Noll radio tradition, the fourth round will be a cold read of totally fictional news from fairytale land. There will be intentionally complex sentences, tongue twisters, and hard-to-pronounce names. Have fun, focus on that enunciation! -- UNTIMED